Incorrect Affiliation Description: In the Letters entitled "Outcomes of a Trial of HIV-1 Immunogen in Patients With HIV Infection" published in the May 2, 2001, issue of THE JOURNAL (2001;285:2191), the author affiliation description was incorrect. On page 2191, the sentence that read "ASG Inc is a provider of information technology consulting services" should have read "ASG is a provider of clinical research, data management, and statistical services to the pharmaceutical industry."

Error in Text and Table: In the Original Contribution entitled "Long-term Effects of an Early Childhood Intervention on Educational Achievement and Juvenile Arrest: A 15-Year Follow-up of Low-Income Children in Public Schools" published in the May 9, 2001, issue of THE JOURNAL (2001;285:2339-2346), there was an error in the text and in the table. On page 2342, in Table 2, the zeros in the last 2 columns of the last 2 rows should have been $P < .001$. In the third column of the text, the paragraph above the heading "Outcome Variables," the last sentence that reads "The mean per child expenditures in 1996 for 1 year of preschool and 1 year of school-age participation are $4350 and $15.00." should read "The mean per child expenditures in 1996 for 1 year of preschool and 1 year of school-age participation are $4350 and $1500."

Incorrect Word: In the Letters entitled "Overuse of Administrative Data to Measure Underuse of Care" published in the February 14, 2001, issue of THE JOURNAL (2001;285:735-736), an incorrect word, "biannual," was placed in the text. On page 735, the sentence that read "Nonetheless, a recent cost-effectiveness analysis concluded that biannual eye examinations were appropriate for low-risk individuals with type 2 diabetes.¹" should have read "Nonetheless, a recent cost-effectiveness analysis concluded that biennial eye examinations were appropriate for low-risk individuals with type 2 diabetes.⁴"

Reference Incorrectly Cited: In the Original Contribution entitled "Policy Analysis of Cervical Cancer Screening Strategies in Low-Resource Settings: Clinical Benefits and Cost-effectiveness" published in the June 27, 2001, issue of THE JOURNAL (2001;285:3107-3115), the reference was cited incorrectly. On page 3114, reference 9, "Visual inspection with acetic acid for cervical-cancer screening: test qualities in a primary-care setting: University of Zimbabwe/JHPIEGO Cervical Cancer Project. Lancet. 1999;353:869-873." should be "University of Zimbabwe/JHPIEGO Cervical Cancer Project. Visual inspection with acetic acid for cervical-cancer screening: test qualities in a primary-care setting. Lancet. 1999;353:869-873."

Incorrect Wording: In the Letters entitled "Industry Support of Researchers in Universities and Academic Medical Centers" published in the May 9, 2001, issue of THE JOURNAL (2001;285:2324-2325), there was incorrect wording in a sentence. On page 2324, in the second column, third paragraph, the sentence that read "The economics of low-margin computer chip markets are forcing companies to scale back their basic university-supported research and they are focusing on increasing productivity." should have read "The economics of low-margin computer chip markets are forcing companies to scale back their university-supported basic research and they are focusing on increasing productivity."

Incorrect Spelling of Author's Last Name: In the Letters entitled "Helping Patients Integrate Research Evidence" published in the November 22/29, 2000, issue of THE JOURNAL (2000;284:2595), the author's last name was misspelled. On page 2595, the author's last name "Kritiansen" should have been "Kristiansen."
